BASEBALL, AUTOS,
LAWN TENNIS, GOLFGROH DISPUTES WITH ZIMMERMAN
TITLE OF GAME'S BEST THIRD SACKER

Heinie Zimmerman (above) and Heinie Groh.

When the critics select the king of the National league's third basemen, Heinie Groh of the Reds is sure to receive much consideration. The diminutive infielder, whose playing has been an important factor in the success of Mathewson's club, may not be the greatest third baseman in the pastime, but he is one of the best. Recently many experts have compared his work with that of Heinie Zimmerman, who this season is conceded to be the peer of all third sackers.

ALMA RICHARDS
VISITS SALT LAKE

Sorry He Cannot Attend A. U. Meet at St. Louis But Is on Way to Reserve Camp.

SALT LAKE, Aug. 15.—Alma Richards, Utah's great athlete of world fame, is in the city straightening out several business matters prior to reporting at the officers' reserve camp at San Francisco.

Richards is keenly disappointed because he finds it impossible to attend both the opening of the reserve camp and the big A. U. championships at St. Louis. The two happen to come on conflicting dates. Since, of course, the training camp comes first with the Utah star, he will be compelled to forego the privilege of taking part in the big meet.

The Olympic hero was decidedly anxious to take another whirl at the American all-around athletic title, an honor which he captured in 1915. He has hopes, however, of seeing the plans for a proposed western meet in California materialize so that he can compete in it.

It appears that the men who have the annual A. U. championships in charge set back the original date of the meet with a view of getting entries from the athletes who have now completed their work in the first officers' reserve camps, only to find that they have run into the date for the opening of the second one.

It so happens that more of the country's athletic stars have been called to the second camp than took advantage of the first one, and as a result many splendid athletes find themselves in a dilemma similar to that of Richards.

BUSH WINS DUEL FROM RUTH.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 14.—A twirling duel between Bush and Ruth today was won by Philadelphia from Boston, when the home team bunched hits with two bases on balls in the third inning, the score being 3 to 1. Meyer had a finger hurt by a foul tip and was forced to leave the game.

JOHNSON'S SEVENTH STRAIGHT.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—Washington made a clean sweep of the series with New York by taking both games of the double-header here today, winning the first, 1 to 0, and the second, 10 to 1. The opening contest was a pitching duel between Shaw and Mogridge, errors by Bauman and Pockinpaugh and a double steal resulting in the only run. In the second game Cullip was hammered for eleven hits in five innings and was poorly supported. Walter Johnson, in good form, recorded his seventh straight victory.

NORGREN AGREES TO RETURN TO UTAH

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 14.—Nelson Norgren, coach of the University of Utah for the past three years, and who has been mentioned for the Occidental coaching berth, will be back at Utah next year, according to present indications.

Norgren resigned his position last fall and Utah has had trouble filling his place. He has agreed to go back there for one more year.

ANGELS WIN IN OPENING GAME.

Roy Mitchell Forfeits Affair to Angels—Meusel's Homer Cause of Break.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 14.—When "Irish" Meusel Truck shouldered right fielder of the Angels, drew three cards to a fast ball in the fourth round of today's ball game, and laid the pill in deep center for a clean homer, the pastime was over. In the subsequent rounds the champs corralled another brace of markers that were entirely wasted, the final score standing 3 to 0.

Roy Mitchell of Texas hurled a game of ball that was nifty, but it sagged down in the middle when the champions picked the pill for three markers in the fourth and fifth.

Aside from those two frames Mitchell was a curly woff, pitching the kind of ball that would cause one younger in years to wear a bulge just below his front collar button.

BEES SHUT OUT IN FIRST WITH SEALS

Dubuc's Passes Make Things Easy for San Francisco in Opener.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 14.—That well-known baseball institution, C. Honkus Baum, performed nobly this afternoon, getting action with his arms, head and feet. He demonstrated while presiding over the winning of a game from the Salt Lake Bees by a score of 5 to 0 that as a foot worker he is nifty.

The Seals' five runs had come largely from Dubuc's inability to find the plate. He found it sometimes when Umpire Kitty Brashear thought he didn't, but in all Jean Arthur and the plate were absolute strangers. He walked nine of the brave boys during the course of the afternoon, so that the four hits netted by the Seals were ample.

Two were out in the eighth when Johnny Tobin hit the ball a mighty smack squarely through the pitcher's box.

Honk gave the ball a careful survey, picked out the proper spot on its round countenance and then gave it a deliberate kick. He kicked it straight over the first base, right into the hands of Koerner, thereby bringing about the third out.

WAKE UP IN NINTH AND WIN.

BOSTON, Aug. 14.—After nine innings of no scoring, Boston beat out the Phillies, 2 to 1, in the tenth inning here today. Opening the tenth, the visitors made their lone run off Ragan, who allowed four hits. In their half Boston started with a single by Kelly and a long triple to the fence by Konetchy. With the score so tied, Fitzpatrick, dumped a single over first and brought in the winning tally.

NEW YORK, Aug. 14.—The Glants and Brooklyn split another double-header today, New York winning the first, 5 to 4, and dropping the second, 3 to 1. Six home runs featured the two games.

The second game was marred by a fist fight between players of both teams. Fletcher and Stengel started it after Stengel had spiked Fletcher sliding into second. Both players were

CUBS LOSE 12-INNING AFFAIR.
CHICAGO, Aug. 14.—It took the Pirates twelve innings to win from the Cubs this afternoon. The final score was 2 to 0.

In the first eight innings the Pirates got but three hits off Douglas and the Cubs had but a total of five off Cooper.

In the twelfth with one out Jackson doubled and scored on Bigbee's single to right. Bigbee was out stealing. Carey beat out a hit and scored, when Boeckel doubled. The Cubs could do nothing in their half of the twelfth.

EXPLANATIONS GO WITH A MARRIAGE

Dewey James Baxter and Mattie Whitaker, both of Ogden, were married in Brigham City yesterday, following a strenuous time experienced in trying to persuade the Box Elder county clerk that the marriage was all right, despite the fact that they were not of age. Young Baxter finally telephoned his home in Ogden, where an adult member of his family assured the clerk that he had Baxter's permission to marry the pair. They will make their future home in Ogden.

A raid on a gambling house on Lincoln avenue, between Twenty-fourth and Twenty-fifth streets, last night, resulted in the arrest of two women and a Japanese. A Chinaman is thought to have been with the trio but made his escape by jumping out of a second-story window. The Japanese gave the name of U. Kumuro, and the women were Ruth Harris, 24, and Lily Barrow, 22.

The Japanese furnished ball, but the women were unable to raise the amount and were locked up on a charge of vagrancy.

Too many war parades have demoralized New York's boy messengers and a call is going forth for girls to take their places.

OAKS FALL BEFORE
BYRON HOUCK

Portland Wins in First of Series With Oakland—Final Score 3 to 2.

PORTLAND, Aug. 14.—The rip-sporting Oaks fell before the wicked fire of Byron Houck today in the opening game of the series and won 3 to 2. It was something like a pitchers' battle, with the breaks favoring the Acons.

Rodgers scored from third when Williams hit a hot one that bounded off Goodbred's knee. Willie scored when Gardner dropped Stumpf's relay on Farmer's easy roller.

In the fifth Miller scored on another bouncer from Stumpf's bat. In the sixth Griggs got a double when the wind carried his fly, and scored on Farmer's single. Leard scored in the ninth on Middleton's single.

SAYS HE'S QUIT
GAME FOR GOOD

Bobby Byrne.

Bobby Byrne, veteran third baseman, released unconditionally by the Phillies, says he has quit baseball for good and that he will go into business in St. Louis. Byrne is classed as a "veteran," yet he is but two or three years beyond thirty. He started his professional career at an age when most boys are just shedding knee pants. It is rumored that he has salted down a big pile of money as a result of his activities in baseball.
